

Listening Speaking Grammar Reading
Title: Trip to American culture
Instructor: Jessica	Level: Above 12yrs Intermediate	Students: About 6	Length: 40 minutes
Materials: 1.PPT slides(using projector) 2.Flash cards with related something American(foods, culture, traditional sports, famous attractions, etc.) 3.Activity sheets(fill in the blank *Back up activity)
Aims: 1.Ss will learn what is American culture 2.Ss will get to know English deeply which they want to acquire as L2 3.Ss will cooperate with each other during activity(to have their sociality) 4.Finally, Ss can be familiarized with American culture
Language Skills: Reading: Read out the PPT screen together & Read the explanation of flash cards Listening: Watch the video clip spoken English without subtitles & teacher's explanations during class Writing: write down 2 or 3 explanations behind the picture Speaking: give Ss's thoughts on the American culture after activity
Language Systems: Lexis: Food, Attraction, Culture, Events Grammar: *American breakfast mainly consists/is consisted of breads *American look forward to watch/watching baseball games all the time Discourse: filling out the blank of the activity sheets
Assumptions: This class is going to be held on December 24 The students in our class are all active and really interested in American culture All the students in our class are basically understand and can speak English
Anticipated Errors and Solutions: Ss might not be understanding video clip exactly ➔ Solutions: After watching the video clip, giving them ICQ and more explanations
Backup Plan: Activity sheets which have blank about the American culture
References: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hor3pmXenQA (last access: 2015. 2. 23) https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hHk-w0Emftc (last access: 2013. 7. 29) https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YBYvCJLb7tE (last access: 2014. 10. 14.) https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=faUYJ9fMiGg (last access: 2012. 11. 11.)

KEY: Individual (I); Pairs (P); Groups (G); Whole Class (W); Teacher (T); Student (S); Students (Ss)
LEAD-IN
Materials: PPT Slides(Let's enjoy the American culture!)
Time 4~5 min	Interaction T-S	Procedure -Greet first(Hello everyone, how do you guys feel today?) -Giving Ss the CCQ(Are you familiar with American? And Is there anything you guys know about it?) -Introduce the American culture -Explain(What are we doing today's class is ~)
PRESENTATION
Materials: Video clip (from YOUTUBE) / Projector screen
Time 8~10 min	Interaction T-S S-S	Procedure -Turn on the video clip from YOUTUBE using projector -Hide the subtitles with a paper (if necessary) -Before the video start (in the process of the video/during playback), giving Ss ICQ(Have you ever been there? And Have you ever tried it? Have you ever seen this before?) -Explain the concept -Play the video clip again
PRACTICE
Materials: Flash cards related to American culture (Brunch, Indian, Hotdog, Thanksgiving Day, Grand Canyon etc.)
Time 5~10 min	Interaction S-S T-S(T controls Ss)	Procedure *It's similar to Icebreakers -Explain the activity of American culture -Divide G into two and then get Ss make their team name -Give Ss time to write down the explanations behind the picture -Monitoring Ss and give Ss the clock alarm
PRODUCTION
Materials: Same as the practice step

Time 10~15 min	Interaction S-S (*T is just helper)	Procedure *It is just following 'PRACTICE' Step -The two team switch the each team's flash cards -T helps to attach the picture on the board and Ss explain the picture's concept including the statements they wrote
WRAP-UP
Materials: PPT Slides (Did you enjoy the trip to American culture?)
Time 2~5 min	Interaction T-S	Procedure -Closing(giving them CCQ: Do you remember what food mainly American eat in the street, New york?(Hotdog)) -Homework(Google the new thing about American culture)

As a back-up plan, fill in the blank under the worksheet

1. American usually eat ----- conveniently on the street
2. American ----- lives until now in their territory and they are protected by the American government
3. ----- is located in Sothern America and it's a really famous attraction for many travelers
4. ----- is the biggest holiday for American and usually eat turkey dishes
5. Many American usually eat ----- from morning to noon

PPT Slide 1

Let's enjoy the American culture!

December 24
TC: Jessica

PPT Slide 2

Did you enjoy the trip to American culture?