

PEOPLE SONG / PEOPLE IN MY TOWN

I see a firefighter fighting fires.
I see a car mechanic changing tires.
I see a pilot flying through the air.
I see a barber cutting people's hair.
I see the people in my town and I say
"Hey, brother! What's going down?"

I see a postman with the mail.
I see the police putting folk in jail.
I see a lifeguard at the swimming pool.
I see the teachers in the local schools.
I see the people in my town and I say
"Hey, brother! What's going down?"

doctors, nurses, astronaut
judges, lawyers in the courts.

I see an actor acting on the stage.
I see a writer writing on a page.
I see a chef working in a restaurant.
And a waiter asking what you want.
I see the people in my town and I say
"Hey, brother! What's going down?"

doctors, nurses, astronaut
judges, lawyers in the courts.

I see the people in my town and I say
"Hey, brother! What's going down?"
I say "Hey, brother! What's going down?"

(Teacher answer)

Exercise 1

1. I see the people in my town and I say
"Hey, brother! What's going down?"
2. Who is working at the swimming pool? Lifeguard
3. What is a firefighter doing? fighting fires
4. Where does a chef work? in a restaurant

Exercise 2

1. Why does the speaker call the people 'Brother'.
It makes the relationship between the speaker and people closer even though they are not real brothers.
2. What does 'What's going down?' mean?
It is to ask people if everything is going well, and how's their day and job.

We talked about what we want to be in the future. Discuss why, and talk about where you are going to work.
